

Italian Reds Oppose Call For Showdown

ROME (AP)—The big Italian Communist party has come out against Soviet Premier Khrushchev's call for a showdown meeting on the Soviet-Chinese struggle, warning that it might cause a formal split in the international Red movement.

The Italian Communists made plain, however, that they are against Peking and might change their position depending on developments.

The statement, published in the Communist organ L'Unita, noted that the party had opposed a world showdown meeting all along and had suggested that individual Communist parties should thresh out differences in bilateral talks.

Fearful Of Break

The renewed opposition from the largest Communist party in the West underscored reports from Budapest that Khrushchev is receiving lukewarm support from some allies in his battle with the Red Chinese.

Khrushchev had predicted that his call last week for a showdown session would rally all Communists. So far only the Hungarian and Bulgarian parties have pledged him all-out support.

Many fence-sitting Communist parties outside the Soviet orbit are apprehensive over the prospect of an open break between the two Communist giants. They hesitate to throw in their lot with the Kremlin in this uncertain stage.

Khrushchev launched a new attack on the Red Chinese Sunday, accusing them of trying to incite the Soviet people against him.

Proud Of Charges

"For this purpose," he told a crowd of about 80,000 in the Hungarian steel city of Miskolc, "they invented accusations against me."

"But I am not ashamed of these charges. I am proud of them. They bring me only pride and honor."

The Chinese accused Khrushchev last week of being "the greatest capitulationist of all time," a tool of the United States and too concerned with raising Soviet living standards. Khrushchev retorted that after the deprivations of Stalin's time, he was helping the Soviet people "to begin to live like human beings."

"If our people begin to be better dressed, to have better shoes, to be better fed, to have better houses, to increase their incomes toward satisfaction of their needs and cultural requirements, that is, to begin to live like human beings, that is the rebirth," he said.

Tides Menace Alaskan Coast

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The threat of flood damage during high tides in coastal areas faces Alaska as action is hastened to raise $100 million to help the earthquake-ravaged state.

The high tides, expected April 14-15, are said to pose a threat to businesses, tourist resorts, port installations and other facilities mostly in the Seldovia-to-Homer area on the Kenai Peninsula, and possibly at Valdez and Seward.

In Juneau, meanwhile, the Alaska Legislature completed action Sunday authorizing a $50 million bond issue as the state's share of restoring the battered economy.

The Army Corps of Engineers said it is investigating indications the earthquake caused land to sink in some low coastal areas, leading to possible flood during extreme high tides.

Col. Byron Kirkpatrick, Deputy Alaska district engineer, said land may have fallen at Valdez, Homer, Seward, Kodiak and Anchorage.

The State Civil Defense organization was checking unconfirmed reports 10 victims of the earthquake might be buried in wreckage at Whittier, a railport southeast of Anchorage.

The latest Civil Defense report on the quake's toll listed 117 casualties, with 39 known dead and 78 missing or presumed dead.

Arkansas GOP Faced By Split

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Southern Republican leaders are applauding Winthrop Rockefeller's announcement that he will run for governor of Arkansas, but a note of discord appeared in the state GOP.

Party leaders in other Southern states unanimously agreed that Rockefeller's decision, announced Saturday, is an indication of the growing Republican strength in the South.

But the Arkansas Republican chairman, William Spicer of Fort Smith, said barely four hours after Rockefeller's announcement that the party is dead in Arkansas.

After a meeting of the State Republican Executive Committee, in which pro-Rockefeller forces gained a seat needed to give them control, Spicer said the Arkansas GOP was nothing more than "a Rockefeller club."

Spicer, leader of a small group of old guard Republicans, said the action killed the GOP in Arkansas and added that the party split would make it difficult for Rockefeller to defeat Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who is expected to announce this week for Democratic nomination to a sixth term.

Spicer and his group have attacked Rockefeller frequently for what they call his usurpation of party control.

Spicer contends Rockefeller will use his influence in the Arkansas party to secure backing for his brother, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Spicer and his forces back Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona for the nomination.

Purses Stolen From 15 Women Choir Singers

SAUSALITO, Calif. (AP)—Fifteen women members of the Westminster College choir of Salt Lake City, Utah, lost their billfolds and $190 Sunday as they sang in Sausalito's First Presbyterian Church.

The women left their purses in Rev. David Jacobsen's house, where they changed clothes before their guest appearance in his church.

Mrs. Jacobsen said she saw a man in the church choir room during the service and she invited him in. He declined, but accepted her offer of food and a newspaper to read in the Jacobsen's house.

When the choir members returned to the house the man, 13 wallets and the cash were gone.

Japanese Join In Mourning For Conqueror

TOKYO (AP)—A saddened Japan led the world tribute today to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, its wartime conqueror who led it to peace, prosperity and democracy.

A sense of sorrow also swept the Philippines and South Korea two other Asian nations in whose destinies MacArthur was deeply involved, at the news of his death.

The Japanese government sent the nation's most beloved elder statesman, former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, to represent Japan at MacArthur's funeral.

Nippon Rebuilt

"I cannot forget the great achievement of the general in rebuilding our nation out of the ashes of defeat," said Yoshida.

"Out of the stringent food shortages, out of the confusion of our political, economic and social systems, and out of the insecurity of men's hearts, MacArthur laid the foundations for a new Japan which became the source of our nation's prosperity today."

In a message to President Johnson, Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda said the Japanese respected MacArthur "not only as a soldier but as a friend." Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako also sent their condolences.

On the streets of Japan, people remembered MacArthur particularly for bringing in huge quantities of food in the immediate postwar months to feed destitute population.

In the Philippines, where MacArthur's wartime pledge "I shall return" gave hope during the Japanese occupation, President Diosdado Macapagal declared a period of national mourning.

Symbol Of Friendship
"A source of courage in our darkest hour, Gen. MacArthur symbolized the highest degree of Philippine-American friendship and affection," Macapagal said in a message to Johnson. "Your loss is our loss. His name is deeply engraved in the hearts of all Filipinos."

South Korea's President Chung Hee Park said Koreans will remember MacArthur forever for "his contributions to ward their independence and democracy."

"Not only the United States but the whole world has lost a most outstanding soldier and one of the greatest of statesmen," Park said.

Korea was the scene of MacArthur's last military campaign. He was removed from command of the U.N. forces in Korea in 1951 for opposing President Harry S. Truman's decision to limit the conflict to Korea.

New Zealand's Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake memorialized MacArthur as "one of the greatest commanders of the last war."

An Indian government spokesman said MacArthur was "one

Anchorage Folks Face Disaster With Worries

Editor's Note—Murlin Spencer, chief of the Seattle bureau of The Associated Press, has known and worked with Alaskans for 18 years. He flew to Anchorage the day after the earthquake and helped cover the dramatic and tragic story. This is his impression 10 days later.

By MURLIN SPENCER

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Ten days after one of history's worst recorded earthquakes smashed this beautiful city on Cook Inlet, a visitor seeing it for the first time might exclaim:

"Why this isn't so bad. The reports were exaggerated."

In the aftermath, a light snow veiled—even if it did not conceal—the rubble shoved back from the streets.

The snow fell lightly on parkland troops standing guard around the hardest-hit areas on Fourth Avenue and at Turnagain Bluff where luxury homes slid into the sea.

But it could not cover the stark realism of the J.C. Penney Co.'s new store, which stands cold and silent, a huge wall blasted away as if by a bomb.

Concern For Future

It could not hide huge apartment and office buildings that stand empty, their occupants listed among the "quake refugees."

There is optimism here, combined with a fantastic display of the cooperation and brother-liness for which Alaskans long have been noted.

But there is also real concern for the future of Anchorage, Valdez, Seward and other quake damaged areas.

The stimulating excitement which sustained the 88,000 residents of this area in the first days after the quake has passed.

Today they face the cold, hard fact that they sustained a major disaster.

Anchorage stood up with great courage in its hour of trial.

The city moved swiftly to restore services. Electricity for lights and heating was back amazingly fast.

No Mass Exodus

Telephone service, too, was restored, but for days facilities were overtaxed by frantic relatives trying to call in and Anchorage residents trying to call out to reassure them.

Water was soon available for washing. But it took time to clear it for drinking in all areas of the city. Hundreds of Anchorage men, women and children have felt the sting of the antityphoid needle.

Just as quickly as guards were removed from the major damage areas, storekeepers moved in, swept out glass and debris and, if they could, opened up again for business. If they could not stay in the same location, they sought others and were delighted if they could find a vacant storehouse in which to set up shop.

Of great importance and significance is the fact there has been no mass exodus from Anchorage.

Brazil Congress Prepares To Pick Interim Regime

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—Political battle lines are being drawn for the convening of Congress this week to elect an interim president to serve the remaining 20 months of deposed President Joao Goulart's term.

The shape of the interim government is certain to influence the 1965 presidential race.

Some leaders of last week's coup met in Rio de Janeiro Saturday and agreed to support Gen. Humberto Castelo Branco, army chief of staff, for the interim presidency.

There are no indications who the Social Democrats, largest bloc in Congress, will support for the interim presidency to succeed Provisional President Paschoal Ranieri Mazzilli, who took over last Thursday.

Nation's Hero To Be Buried In Norfolk, Va.

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation—and much of the world—began paying a hero's homage today to Douglas MacArthur, gallant old soldier who has faded away.

The rugged heart of the 84-year-old general of the Army, which had kept beating through three grievous operations, was stilled at 2:39 p.m. EST Sunday at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington, D.C.

Soon thereafter the body of the man who etched his name on so much history—St. Mihiel, Bataan, Corregidor, New Guinea, Manila, Tokyo and Inchon—began a historic funeral journey into a starlit night.

The body was brought by motor hearse to this city—where he had lived in a hotel suite since coming home from the wars 13 years ago. Until Tuesday morning the body will be at the Universal Funeral Chapel.

Mausoleum Ready

Then, from 10 a.m. Tuesday until 10 p.m. it will lie in repose at the famous old 7th Regiment Armory on Park Avenue, a great brick building with battlements and towers, and filled with the trophies of many heroes.

On Wednesday, the body will be returned by train to Washington. From 3:30 that afternoon until noon Thursday it will lie in state in the Capitol rotunda, where so recently the body of the martyred President John F. Kennedy also reposed.

Then, by military plane it will be flown to the naval city of Norfolk, Va., for funeral services in St. Paul's Episcopal church and burial in the MacArthur Memorial nearby. All along the funeral journey there will be the military pageantry reserved for the nation's great.

The general had expressed a wish to be buried in Norfolk, because there his mother, the former Mary Pinckney Hardy, was born, reared and married. The city has fashioned, out of a 114-year-old courthouse, a memorial to MacArthur, a museum for his memorabilia, and a mausoleum for his remains.

Corncob Pipe Displayed
There are the famous crumpled campaign hat, with its scrambled eggs insignia, and one of the corncob pipes that were his trademark.

There, too, above the tomb that will receive him, is this inscription: "In twenty campaigns, on a hundred battlefields, around a thousand campfires, in long years of peace as well as war—a soldier who tried to do his duty as God gave him the light to see that duty."

Messages of sorrow at MacArthur's passing—and praise for his exploits in World Wars I and II and the Korean "police action"—poured in from around the globe. One, from former President Harry S. Truman, recalled a great controversy with which historians will be wrestling for decades.

Truman said Sunday night: "I am deeply sorry at the passing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who has given of himself with exceptional strength and valor and will be remembered as one of the great military men in our history."

On April 11, 1951, as the culmination of great differences in views on how to conduct the Korean War, Truman dismissed MacArthur from all his commands.

The general wanted to carry the war to the Red Chinese—for example by bombing beyond the Yalu River, and unleashing Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists from Formosa. The President believed that would risk dangerous escalation of the war, perhaps into global conflict.

Beginning last March 6, the general had undergone operations at Walter Reed for removal of his gall bladder, his spleen and an eight-foot section of intestine. Since Friday night he had lain in coma.

Kept His Promise

Gov. Wallace Vote Watched In Wisconsin

WASHINGTON (A)—Alabama Gov. George Wallace's Wisconsin primary election bid highlights a week of political activity that also will include selection in three other states of delegates to the national nominating conventions.

Wallace, challenging the Johnson administration's civil rights program, goes up against Gov. John W. Reynolds, a favorite son, in Tuesday's Wisconsin primary. Delegates representing 30 Republican and 46 Democratic votes will be chosen.

North Dakota Republicans meet Wednesday to choose 14 delegates. Kansas Democrats will complete their 24-vote delegation and Kentucky Republicans choose their 27 delegates at state conventions Saturday.

Johnson Speaks Up

President Johnson took his first public hand in the Wisconsin contest Sunday night. In a message to Reynolds, he called the Wisconsin governor "a patriot and a leader in whom we can all take pride" and said "I salute John Reynolds for his unceasing concern for the well being of all the people in his state."

Another message came from Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, who said a successful campaign by Reynolds would "bolster and reinforce those who are making the good fight for human dignity in the United States."

At his news conference Saturday, Johnson was asked to comment on what effect he thinks the vote Wallace might receive in Wisconsin, Indiana and Maryland could have on the civil rights situation.

He replied: "I think the people of those states will give their answer at the time designated. I don't care to speculate or anticipate it."

Republicans May Help

An expected slam-bang contest between the major announced Republican presidential candidates failed to develop in Wisconsin when a favorite son movement developed behind Rep. John Byrnes. A slate pledged to him is the only one entered in the GOP primary.

Lack of a contest may encourage some Wisconsin Republicans to vote in the Democratic contest. GOP leaders are urging Republicans to stay out of the Democratic battle.

Wallace has been campaigning against the Johnson administration civil rights bill now before the Senate. Political leaders of both parties will be watching closely to see what impact the legislation may have had on the northern state's voters.

After Wallace filed, Reynolds got into the race to protect Wisconsin's 46 votes for President Johnson.

The Republican delegates to be chosen in Wisconsin, Kentucky and North Dakota will swell the total chosen for the July GOP convention to 192. It will take 655 votes to win the nomination.

Negro Killing Retrial Opens

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Byron De La Beckwith, a crusading segregationist, goes to court today for a retrial on charges he killed Negro integration leader Medgar Evers.

The first trial of the ex-Marine fertilizer salesman from Greenwood, Miss., ended Feb. 7 with a hung jury. The all-white jury had deliberated for 11 tense hours, finally splitting 6-6.

Whites and Negroes alike were surprised. Most had expected a quick acquittal.

Beckwith, 43, is accused of shooting Evers from ambush when the Negro leader returned home last summer from a civil rights meeting. Evers, 37, was state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The slaying last June 11, Beckwith's arrest 11 days later and the impact of the first trial stirred deep racial passions in this Southern state—which has the highest percentage of Negroes in the nation.

Beckwith, whose hobbies are gun collecting and passing out hard-core Citizens Council Literature, has been in jail since his arrest.

The prosecution says it may offer some new evidence in the retrial; the defense refuses to say if it plans any new witnesses or exhibits.

Hammar Prayer For Centennial

A Centennial Prayer has been composed by Rev. Karl J. Hammar, pastor emeritus of the Central Methodist Church, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of ore shipping through the port of Escanaba.

Rev. Hammar read the prayer at the welcoming of the Canadian ore ship, the Glen Eagles, Friday at the ceremony which heralded the official opening of the Escanaba ore shipping season.

"Eternal God, of whom the Scriptures tell us, that 'One day with Thee is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.' We approach Thee in humility and gratitude as we seek, in this simple manner, to observe the beginning of this centennial year of trade and commerce.

"Five score years ago the pioneers laid the foundation for that trade and commerce opening the mines from which the rich ores of iron and copper have been mined to meet the

Good Summer For U.P. Seen In Travel Queries

If indications prove correct, the Upper Peninsula will be the scene of much tourist activity this summer, says Ed Dahl, manager of WDBC, who represented the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce at the Minneapolis Boat and Travel Show the past two weeks.

Dahl said the show this year exceeded all past years in attendance, with more than 160,000 paying customers.

The Upper Peninsula exhibit came in for some extra publicity when George Rice of WCCO-TV Minneapolis cited Minnesota's poor booth as compared with the Upper Peninsula showing. Rice's comments focused attention on the Upper Peninsula as a tourist area and the Upper Peninsula booth, manned by six Upper Peninsula representatives helped too.

Dahl said that much interest was focused on the camp and trailer sites available in Michigan and in Mackinac Bridge fares. Motel and Hotel accommodations came in for their share of the questions. Other U.P. representatives were Vincent Dougherty, Russell Glynn, Skip McGinty, Warren and Lorraine Broth, and Chief Herbert Welsh.

Seek Addition For State Lab

Representatives of the City of Escanaba are in Lansing today at the request of officials who are considering the construction of an addition to the State Office Building here.

City Manager George Harvey and City Controller Frank Bourke were summoned to Lansing by Glen Allen, state controller, to confer with him and to meet with members of the House ways and means committee.

Gov. Romney has in his appropriations request a sum for the construction of a State Health Department laboratory addition to the State Office Building. The Health Department's laboratory work for the Upper Peninsula would be centered there.

The city representatives will also consult with state officials on the city's proposal to have the State of Michigan acquire ownership of the State Office Building, which was constructed with funds bequeathed to the city by the late Catherine Bonifas. Purchase of the building by the state would return $100,000 in Bonifas fund money to the community for recreation building use.

Mayor Harold Vanlerberghe said the city's sale proposal is to have the state acquire the property under a rental purchase plan, with recovery of the funds for recreation building.

The proposed addition for a State Health Department laboratory would be on the south side extending along 3rd St. The city has, at the suggestion of the state, taken option on the property from the owner, Harold "Pat" Gasman.

Shipping Start Is Delayed Here By Frozen Ore

Slowed by frozen ore in the cars, the 1964 iron ore shipping season is getting off to a slow and chilly start at Escanaba.

Hundreds of cars have upwards of two feet of frozen ore in their bottoms which can be loosened only by running them through the Chicago & North Western's new infra-red thawing facility.

This is a long all-metal shed whose sides are lined with infra-red heat lamps that loosen the frozen ore in about one hour. The shed, built three years ago by the North Western at a cost of $250,000, will hold 10 cars of ore at one time.

Ashcroft Out Today
"The regular ore is badly frozen," said L. A. McMillan, dock agent for the C&NW. "The ore-thawing shed is performing well, however, and we are moving the ore from the yards to the docks more rapidly today. The Ashcroft will clear with a cargo of 11,200 tons of ore this afternoon for the Algoma Steel Corp. mills at Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario."

In the harbor and ready to load out are the Inland Steel boats E. J. and P. D. Block. The latter will take on 13,200 tons of ore and both vessels will unload their cargoes at Indiana Harbor.

This is the first time the infra-red thawing facility has had other than test use since it was built. Conditions have been favorable and freezing has been at a minimum until the cold snap this spring caught hundreds of loaded cars in the C&NW yards, freezing the moisture laden iron ore in the car bottoms.

Four Japanese Killed By Jet

TOKYO (AP)—A U.S. Marine pilot whose jet interceptor crashed into a Japanese town and killed four persons said today he ejected from the plane because he could no longer control it.

Capt. R. L. Bown of Seattle, Wash., said his F8U "went into an uncontrolled flight and pitched nose down."

"Since I was below recovery altitude and I had no control of the craft, I ejected," Bown said.

vessel, was the first ore carrier to arrive and load at Escanaba this season. She took a cargo to Algoma Steel Corp at Soo, Ontario.

Pellet ore arriving here is practically without moisture and therefore does not freeze in the cars, McMillan explained. The pellet ore goes directly to the dock and loading into the boats.

The pellet ore is coming here from the Hanna Co.'s pelletizing plant at Groveland near Iron Mountain.

The North Western expects to load out about 5½ million tons of iron ore this season, including about 1 million tons of pellet ore.

MacArthur MSU Visit Recalled

By AL SANDNER
LANSING (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur visited Michigan twice in the past 14 years. Warning against the dangers of war and militarism.
The five-star general, a hero of three wars, delivered the commencement address at Michigan State University in 1961, warning graduates that "it may take another cataclysm of destruction to prove the bald truth that further evolution of civilization cannot take place until global war is abolished."

His first visit served as a triumphal tour of the state just 13 months after former President Harry S. Truman removed him as United Nations commander-in-chief in the Korean War.

Crowd of 120,000
An estimate 120,000 persons turned out to see him in Lansing—when the city had a total population of 78,000. The visit was arranged by a committee of Republican legislators after tempers cooled following bitter partisan debate over Truman's action.

Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Royal Oak, now a congressman, had sponsored and engineered through the House a resolution stating "world Communism has achieved its greatest victory of a decade."

Broomfield headed the committee that later sponsored the whirlwind two-day tour of 16 Michigan cities.

After he left Lansing, the MacArthur motorcade drove to Detroit, making stops at half-a-dozen communities along the way.

MacArthur told the MSU graduating class: "No longer can war be a successful weapon of international adventure. If you lose, you are annihilated. If you win, you stand only to lose. War now contains only the germs of double suicide."

The abolition of war could produce a wave of prosperity that would raise the world's standard of living beyond anything ever dreamed of by man, he said.

Although the nation could not afford to be caught unprepared for war, MacArthur said, "the hundreds of billions

How the Chinese

do it

Legend has it that Chinese doctors used to be paid only while their patients were healthy, got no fee during illness. It almost sounds reasonable. In fact, there are physicians today who specialize in keeping their patients healthy. Preventive medicine, it's called. All doctors practice it as much as they can. If you get regular checkups, your doctor has a chance to keep you from getting sick. Modern drugs play a large part in this practice, and that's where we pharmacists come in. But only you can make preventive medicine work—by getting into the habit of regular checkups. It's a very good idea.

Car Accidents Take 23 Lives

By The Associated Press

Traffic accidents have taken their highest weekend death toll in Michigan this year—killing 23 persons between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

And the new deaths shot the state's traffic toll for 1964 to 518, compared with 366 for the same period of 1963. The increase comes to 41 per cent.

On two other weekends this year traffic has killed 21.

Steven Cody, 8, of South Lyon, and Dennis Harju, 23, of Ne-gaunee, were killed Sunday when a car driven by Harju was struck by a Chesapeake & Ohio passenger train southeast of South Lyon. Police said Harju ran a stop light at a crossing.

Norlene Kruger, 48, of Clinton was killed Sunday in a three-car collision at the intersection of U.S. 12 and M 52 in Lenawee County. State Police said the Kruger car was struck by an auto and knocked into a third vehicle which had stopped at the intersection.

Success Marks Rags To Riches

First phase of the "Rags to Riches" campaign in Escanaba and Delta County was highly successful, according to reports following Saturday's big push to raise funds to aid handicapped and underprivileged children of the county.

The Exchange Club and the Aqua-Nuts water ski club are sponsors of the drive whose proceeds will go to provide dental care for children from underprivileged families, and to assist with the Day School for Retarded Children.

More than 10,000 pounds of rags were contributed in the collection of Escanaba's south side drive Saturday. Twelve trucks were kept busy hauling rags to the Olson Transportation terminal, the processing center.

Next Saturday the collection will be made on Escanaba's north side starting at 10 a. m. A fleet of trucks and a group of volunteers will be out to pick up rags left on porches and along the streets at the curb.

Radio WLST's Dick Drazba and his Ragathon radio campaign sparked additional giving in the drive Saturday afternoon. From the people of the Bark River and Ford River area came many contributions of used clothing—as well as cash from persons who reported they "lacked rags but we have some money."

All wearable clothing collected in the drive will be donated to the Salvation Army, who will give it out to those who suffer losses in fires in the county or who are in need of garments in hardship cases. Thus, even used clothing of good quality will be disposed of to the best advantage.

North Escanaba residents are asked to prepare between now and Saturday for their contribution to the "Rags to Riches" drive. Used clothing should have the zippers and buttons removed and be placed in cartons or bundles, ready for collection by 10 a. m. Saturday.

Gladstone's Triumph

The quick collection of $24,000 as the community's share of a plant acquisition project in Gladstone is one of the most impressive expressions of community action for economic development in the history of the Upper Peninsula.

Gladstone has taken a severe buffeting economically. The city has suffered the familiar fate of northern cities, which have seen their old wood industry base erode away and which have often been unable to find enough new industries to replace them. Escanaba has suffered seriously from the same trend but has been fortunate in having some new growth industries take up the slack left by the departing wood mills and railroad activities.

The surest way to economic growth is through existing industries. They're much more apt to grow than are new industries to come into the area. The saving of an old industry, then, is just as important as the attracting of a new one, and maybe more so, because the community trauma of a large number of people losing their livelihood is avoided. This appears to have been accomplished in Gladstone.

The Gladstone Industrial Development Corp. was formed to purchase the Marble Arms plant, one of Gladstone's pioneer industries. It had been put on the block by its new owner, IIT-Bell & Gossett, Inc., which continues to operate the Marble Electric plant in Gladstone.

Two sporting goods manufacturing firms at Hopkins, Minn., will buy the Marble Arms plant and move their operations here and merge them with the Marble operations, expanding and giving more resources to an industry which has been in a status of uncertainty for several years.

The Upper Peninsula cities were created by industries; grew up around them to house and serve their workers. When industries leave it is necessary to reverse this process and to have the communities which they have created attract more industries. This is a very difficult business, in which Gladstone, or Escanaba or any city which tries it, quickly learns that it has lots of competition from other communities with impressive resources.

Gladstone's quick action in raising the $24,000 community share of a $160,000 plant purchase project shows excellent community leadership, active community cooperation, overall community understanding of the realities of economic development. Gladstone has acted to help itself and there's no known substitute for this process. By her action she has made herself more attractive as a community in which to locate a plant and has enhanced the likelihood of her development beyond the Marble Arms project.

Brave Alaska

Great natural catastrophes like the Alaskan earthquake remind us how insecure a tenancy mankind holds on this planet.

The earth we consider so firm, into which we bore our deep mines and sink the foundations for our towering buildings, is but the merest outer skin of the huge globe.

We are told that the massive adjustment of the crust which shook Alaska released more energy than all the nuclear bombs ever exploded. Actually, an event that could cause tidal (seismic) waves thousands of miles away and lift the city of Houston, Tex., five inches in the air is not measurable in terms that have any real meaning to us.

In the face of such power acting over such a vast area, the fact that the death and injury toll was as low as it was is all the more amazing.

Fortunately, it is not man's nature to dwell on his own puniness compared to the cosmos. We take note of our insignificance; we mourn our dead; then we set about to rebuild our shattered cities and lives.

In this effort, the gallant people of Alaska are fortified with the knowledge that the resources of the strength of the entire nation, as well as the hopes of the rest of the world, are behind them.

The Doctor Says:

Raw Vegetables Aid Health

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

A mother complains that her 2½-year-old daughter often goes three or four days without a bowel movement — in spite of the fact that she drinks lots of prune juice.

This child should eat some cooked or raw vegetable and fruit is not enough to insure a normal movement. The amount should be regulated so that the stools are firm. And remember, in some children it is normal to have a bowel movement only two or three times a week. If the stools are very hard, the child may be given a glycerine suppository or a small enema (4 ounces of plain warm water) to get the movement started. This should not be done routinely and laxatives should be avoided.

Q — We took our 10-month-old son to a skin specialist because of a spot on his neck. The doctor said it was urticaria pigmentosa. How serious is this? Should he have the spot removed?

A — In urticaria pigmentosa, hives develop and persist for several weeks. When they disappear a brown discoloration of the skin remains. Sometimes the brown spot appears without any hives. The spots may fade away spontaneously when adolescence is reached. Sometimes they can be made to disappear by giving pyridoxamine. Since the spots are harmless, I would advise letting them alone.

Q — Our son had above average intelligence. Then he got what our doctor calls encephalopathy with cerebral dysrhythmia. Now he stays in bed all the time and has to be tubed. The doctor says the cause is not known and there is no active material.

Questions And Answers

Q—How old is the practice of negotiating treaties?

A—As early as 3,000 B. C., rulers of ancient countries signed treaties with neighboring kingdoms. Some treaties ended wars and others settled boundary disputes.

Q—Where is the greatest uranium deposit in the United States?

A—The uranium mineralization of Ambrosia Lake, New Mexico, ranks first in the U. S. in terms of total reserves, making New Mexico the leading domestic source of radioactive materials.

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Studies of the scores drafted make on Army mental tests are causing growing concern over whether we are wasting sizable amounts of money and effort and causing a considerable amount of unemployment by teaching the wrong things or teaching them the wrong way in our schools.

Cassius Clay, the heavyweight boxing champion of the world, is a case in point. He graduated from the 12th grade. According to officials here, his Army tests score was equivalent to something between the 5th and 6th grade—even though the test doesn't strictly measure grade level.

His score was not unusual. Considerable numbers of young men who take these tests have graduated from the 9th, 10th, 11th or 12th grades, yet fail to reach 5th, 6th, 7th or 8th grade standards on the tests.

Three out of four Army mental rejectees finished the 8th grade. Half completed 9½ years of school. Twenty per cent graduated from high school.

Most government job-training schools have had to reject large numbers of the unemployed. Regardless of their schooling, they don't have the reading, writing and arithmetic skills to even take the training courses.

A spot survey in selected states of high school vocational courses shows that most students are being taught the wrong vocations.

In some states, at least, 10 times as many students are being trained in agriculture as will ever be connected with farming. Computer, electronics and laboratory technician courses are scarce.

High schools, colleges and the federal Department of Labor do not have reasonably accurate figures on what job openings there are now, let alone what openings there will be five or six years hence when many of today's students will be job hunting. The Labor Department furnishes forecasts. Forecasters say they work with insufficient data.

Current data is insufficient to determine whether a man school-trained in one field stays in that field generally or enters another, or whether, if he stays in the field he trained in, he is more or less qualified than a man who hasn't had that specialized training.

Some labor department officials admit privately they don't know why those out of work are unemployed. They have some general statistics. They talk blithely about its being the uneducated. But they don't know, for example, how many trained college-graduate engineers are unemployed or why. They don't know whether their retraining programs correctly train people. (They've had luck so far because they're taking the cream of the crop for a few known jobs. But they're not touching the heart of the unemployed.)

Without such information, U. S. government officials admit privately, much of the money we spend directly or indirectly for vocational, technical, occupational or professional training may be wasted.

What it boils down to, say some officials, is that we're spending considerable sums of money on programs without spending the lesser amounts of bread-and-butter money to get the statistics we need to let us know where we're going.

HOW DECAY WORKS

By Dr. Stephen Sheffrey

And The Michigan State Dental Association

The badger, with his long stout claws, is the power digger of the animal world. He makes a living digging out field mice and other little animals.

It's been said that an animal being dug out will start moving through the earth away from the badger, digging ahead and filling in behind in a frantic effort for survival. It's also said that the badger always wins.

A slow-motion parallel to the wild drama of badger versus rodent can be shown by periodic X-rays of a tooth which is being attacked by decay.

First we see the decay shadow in the enamel of the tooth, and at the center of the tooth we see the nerve. The decay shadow is about an eighth of an inch away from the nerve at this time.

Six months later, if the tooth is in the average teen-ager's mouth, the shadow, shaped something like an arrowhead, has punctured the enamel and spread out into the dentin.

The nerve, now irritated by decay acids, begins to deposit extra calcium along the lining of its chamber nearest the dentin. This calcium material is harder than normal, just as a wood knot is harder than normal wood. The nerve retreats as it builds up a hard shield against the oncoming decay.

Although the nerve has valiantly stalemated the advance in one area, decay proceeds to make a hollow shell out of the rest of the tooth. Eventually THE SHADOW wins unless the tooth is repaired.

Not all nerves are able to put up this temporary barrier, and decay surges in on them as if they've been caught by surprise. This is just one of a hundred reasons why tooth decay seems such a confusing process to our patients, who sometimes feel that decay can "set in" and ruin teeth overnight.

Decay operates more slowly than on an overnight schedule, however. The process appears faster than it is because decay bacteria often enter a tooth through a pinhole which seems hardly worth filling to an unpracticed observer. But inside, working unseen in the softer dentin, decay undermines the hard enamel shell of the tooth.

There is much that can be done. For one thing, the victim of "fast" decay can learn how to eat sweets without causing as much tooth destruction.

Traffic Peril

I think it is about time that the City of Escanaba finds out how the majority of us, who live on the Lake Shore Drive feel about having a new street put in and why we feel the way we do.

Our short-handed overloaded Police Department has enough to do without sending a full time patrolman out to watch our neighborhood and as a result we are living with a race track at our front doors. Most of us have little children and we would love to see those children grow to adulthood. However, if the city puts in a better road the speed of the hot rod jockeys will rise from 45 to 55 or 60 miles per hour and decrease the chances of our little ones ever growing up unhurt.

I am not putting the blame on the Police Department as they are a fine bunch of fellows doing the best they can but, the fact still remains that Lake Shore Drive is already a speedway for many drivers that have little if any regard for the safety of others.

There are also a few people that would like to route the tourist traffic along Lake Shore Drive if the road is replaced with new pavement. We do not want the extra traffic coming through what is now a residential area. This is not a selfish feeling since the tourist traffic brings little if any additional business to the average merchant. Most people that want to shop in Escanaba will turn off the new highway and come on into town without having to be routed through our neighborhood.

I realize that there are arguments on both sides of this issue but, we want to be heard and we will fight this new street until the City Council can guarantee us proper police protection from the potential killers that disregard the posted speed limit.

Dear Ann Landers: I'd like to say a few words about the women's editors on newspapers—those grand dames who sit on their thrones and decide whose engagement or wedding picture is going to make the page.

I live in a Southern city and

Dear Ann Landers: I'm no bride. My husband and I have been married 14 years and the problem I'm writing about goes way back. I hope you can help me because I'm just about ready to crown him with the coffee pot.

Orville is a lovely, kind, intelligent, generous person — from noon on. But heaven help anyone who crosses him during the first four hours of his day. I've never known the man to utter a civilized word before 11:00 A. M.

I have made a genuine effort to be cheerful and sunny at the breakfast table even though at times I've felt pretty lousy myself. Orville's coffee is piping hot, his eggs are just right and the muffins and rolls I bake are just beautiful.

I've tried every device to sweeten up this man in the morning, but I have failed. Help! Please!—END OF MY STRING

Dear String: Nothing irritates a morning sour-puss like a cheerful, chirping wife.

Orville's disposition is geared to his metabolism. Some people don't come alive until noon. Others wake up feeling simply gr-r-r-r—but by 9:00 P. M. they fold like old-fashioned bridge tables. The best thing you can do for yourself—and for Orville—is to turn down the happy voltage and let him alone.

Ranger 7 Has Last Chance

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Jet Propulsion Laboratory has only one more chance to land a camera-toting Ranger rocket on the moon before its contract with the U.S. space agency expires, industry sources say.

These sources, with close contacts inside the $65-million, 4,000-man complex where lunar and interplanetary probes are built, say launch-pad commitments for other projects mean only one more Ranger can be fired this year. That launching now is scheduled for June. The contract expires in December.

If Ranger 7 fails—as have all prior Rangers—these sources say:

1. Management of the government-owned laboratory may be taken out of the hands of the California Institute of Technology, which receives over $1 million annually for operating JPL for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.
2. Director William H. Pickering may be removed from the post he has held 10 years.
3. A hard-headed businessman may be installed to supervise the lab's $250-million annual

Armed Bandits Rob Dearborn Firm Of $10,315

DETROIT (AP)—Interstate United Service Co., an industrial catering firm, was robbed of $10,315 Friday by two armed bandits who entered the firm's second floor offices in suburban Dearborn and forced five women employees to lie on the floor of a money-counting room.

Police said the women were counting the days receipts when the bandits entered. They were ordered to lie face-down on the floor while the bandits cleared a table of currency—mostly $1 bills—and coins and stuffed the money into bank bags.

Interstate United caters for General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. plants and offices in the Detroit area.

budget, now largely controlled by scientists.

Tension resulting from the sink-or-swim aspects of the approaching Ranger 7 shot, plus hurt and anger over NASA Administrator James E. Webb's published criticism of JPL, virtually have demoralized key personnel at the laboratory, the sources say.

One authoritative source, admittedly sympathetic with JPL's problems, believes the demoralization has hurt Ranger 7's chances for success.

Concern over the fate of JPL became critical Friday after a letter Webb wrote to the chairman of the Senate and House Space Committees had been made public. It blamed the failure of Ranger 6, which crashed on the moon Feb. 2 without televising close-up pictures back to earth, on faults in design and testing.

Business Upturn 38 Months Old

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The business upturn reached the ripe old age of 38 months this week.

That made it the longest business expansion in peacetime.

Some economists felt it was getting decrepit. Others contended it is still robust and has a considerably longer life ahead.

Majority opinion tended toward the belief that things look good for the months ahead.

M. R. Gainsbrugh, chief economist of the National Industrial Conference Board, expressed this opinion:

"Because there are none of the familiar signs of economic strain, I would say the top of this expansion isn't even in sight yet, especially considering the stimulating effect of the recent tax reduction."

The Chase Manhattan Bank of New York said:

"The odds are high that the economy will be operating at, or quite close to practical capacity later this year. This is likely to be true even with moderation in consumer markets, capital expenditure and inventories."

At present, the upswing isn't hampered by the usual signs of an expansion's demise. Inventories aren't excessive, loans aren't difficult to obtain and prices are relatively stable.

This is despite the fact that the upturn well exceeds the 30-month average for all 26 previous U.S. business expansions since records were first kept in 1854.

It is being carried along by corporations' high sales and earnings, particularly in the automobile and steel industries, and heavy investment in new plant and equipment.

On the strength of this, the stock market has reached successive new highs, adding to the optimism.

Living Cost Drops

American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and Sears, Roebuck and Co., among others, supplied evidence this week that business is moving along at a high level.

AT&T reported record earnings of $397,918,000 or $1.58 a share, for the three months ended Feb. 29, compared with $358,858,000, or $1.43 a share, a year earlier. Sales rose to $2,474,815,000 from $2,295,271,000 a year earlier.

Sears, Roebuck sales for the year ended Jan. 31 totaled $5.1 billion, crossing the $5-billion mark for the first time. The big mail-order chain earned $261 million, or $3.44 a share, against $234.6 million, or $3.10 a share, in the previous year.

Consumers got a little good news when the cost of living declined in March for the first time since December 1961. It was just a little drop—one-tenth of one per cent—and the Bureau of Labor Statistics predicted a resumption of the rise this month.

The Census Bureau reported that manufacturers' new orders and shipments in February declined slightly from record levels in January.

Steel production climbed last week to the highest level since last June 22, totaling 2,406,000 tons, up 1.9 per cent from the previous week. Signs of a leveling off in steel demand appeared, however. Indications were that shipments will fall in May and June and rebound in July.

Greatest of Cakes

Brazil Nut Devil's Food Cake Is Simply Superb.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Once every year, because we want to make certain that everyone in the United States tastes this greatest of cakes, we reprint the recipe for Brazil Nut Devil's Food Cake. Make this rich, velvety, chocolate and nut cake.

To shell the Brazil nuts: cover the in-shell nuts with cold water; bring to a boil and boil 3 to 5 minutes. Cover with cold water and let stand 1 minute; then drain and crack. Or else freeze the nuts several hours before cracking. Large nutmeat pieces are then easily removed.

BRAZIL NUT DEVIL'S FOOD CAKE

1 cup shortening
2 cups firmly packed brown sugar
2 eggs
4 squares (4 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/2 cup finely chopped

Brazil nuts
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Add eggs, one at a time and beat until light and fluffy. Add melted chocolate and beat well. Mix in Brazil nuts. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt; add flour mixture alternately with milk to batter. Stir in vanilla. Pour into 3 deep greased 8-inch layer pans and bake in moderate oven (350°) 35 to 40 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes and remove from pan. Cover with a chocolate frosting and garnish with Brazil nut petals.

BRAZIL NUT PETALS
Place whole shelled Brazil nuts in cold water. Bring slowly to a boil. Simmer 3 to 5 minutes. Drain and cut into thin lengthwise slices about 1/8-inch thick

Study Group members also will have an opportunity to see what is new in curtain and drapery fabrics and will learn what to expect of the various fibers used in their construction. Actual fabrics will be on display. Bulletins on making curtains and drapery also will be available.

Sawtimber Gain In Eastern U.P. 20 Years Away

While the pulpwood growth in the eastern Upper Peninsula is increasing yearly, the hardwood sawtimber supply will be declining for the next 20 or 30 years and then it will increase considerably.

Foresters of the Hiawatha National Forest, which extends from Delta County east to the Sault, say that there will be high percentage of good quality sawtimber in the increased cut that's coming in a quarter century.

The situation which prevails on the big Hiawatha Forest in the Eastern U. P., isn't duplicated in the Ottawa National Forest in the western U. P. It has more sawtimber (mature trees) than the Hiawatha. This is because of the general difference in the species of trees in the original forests and in the periods in which they were cut.

The Hiawatha Forest area of today included many pine stands. They were cut early because they could be floated down rivers to sawmills. Then followed the great fires, which led some foresters to refer to it as the "Hiawatha Burn" instead of the "Hiawatha Forest" when it was first created.

The Ottawa Forest was in mostly hardwood country and it was logged later and forest fire protection services had been developed so it was never subjected to the repeated burns that crisped up so much of the Hiawatha's area and complicated the task of its rehabilitation.

Sawmill Exodus

The Hiawatha Forest staff was asked to appraise its situation today in light of a Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis report that stumpage in the Pacific Coast region was becoming increasingly scarce and that big sawmilling was moving eastward again across the Rockies.

In the period 1952-57 some 42 new sawmills were constructed in Montana and the Black Hills, about a fourth of which had transferred their operations from the Pacific Coast states.

Are there any implications in this trend for Lake States logging like that in the Upper Peninsula, the Forest Service was asked. Hiawatha Forest officials headed by Sherwood Trotter, supervisor, replied:

1. Our Wood supply currently exceeds demand.
2. Stumpage prices are decreasing.

3. We would attempt to encourage industrial development by offering sales which would justify capital investment. (Such as our long term sale offering made this past year to encourage establishment of a pulp mill in the east end of the U. P.)
4. Chip utilization (sawmill residue) is also a feature of Michigan operations. We look for

Diverted

Abbot Fox, head of the Abbot Fox Lumber Co., of Iron Mountain saw a benefit for Lake States lumbermen in the lumber market conditions affected by the great earthquake at Anchorage Alaska.

It will tend to divert the Pacific Northwest's production of lumber from its normal sales channels to Alaska for the rebuilding efforts and this will mean that Lakes States lumber companies will have less competition from the Pacific Coast in supplying Midwest markets.

The Alaskan disaster has already had a noticeable effect on West Coast lumber prices.

portable units to bale chips in the woods. Another new development is our active chemical wood market.

5. Aspen use has increased by leaps and bounds.
6. Our plantation wood utilization problem will be similar to the lodgepole pine use problem, for sawlogs, in the West.
7. Some of our industries have had problems of consumer acceptance of products — balsam particularly — like that experienced by the lodge pole pine enterprisers in the West.

8. In an area of new industry the greatest opportunity for market expansion comes from the expansion of existing facilities, not new plants.

9. Pulpwood consumption is increasing at a healthy rate and local pulp consumption appears to stand a good chance of increasing greatly. (The Hiawatha has had Wisconsin feelers about its pulpwood potential.)

10. There's greater interest and emphasis on the small pine sawlogs, with the large potential resources existing, the pine sawlog cut will increase in the near future (3 to 5 years) and "pine will be king again."

11. The hardwood sawtimber cut will dip and then increase considerably.

Help For Alaska Is VFW Project

DEARBORN (AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars in Michigan, with nearly 400 posts and auxiliaries, has joined in a national drive to send relief funds to earthquake-stricken Alaska, Department Commander Ernest Stratyuk of Dearborn reported Friday.

The first check, for $500, was received from the Davison post, near Flint. The national headquarters recommended the relief drive after it was learned that many of those needing aid included overseas veterans.

President Will Toss First Ball

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson will keep tradition and attend the opening game of the American League baseball season April 13 and toss out the first ball.

Through the years this has been a standard presidential procedure, with misses occasionally.

The Washington Senators will play the Los Angeles Angels in the District of Columbia Stadium April 13.

Raiders Arrest Four In Detroit Horse Bet Ring

DETROIT (AP)— Four persons were arrested Friday in raids which the Wayne County sheriff's department said were aimed at breaking up a $1,000-a-day horsebetting ring operated in suburban downriver Detroit.

Charged with conspiring to violate state gambling laws and freed on $1,000 bonds were: Paul A. Romaine, 64, of Lincoln Park; Mrs. Jean Galfano, 45, of Allen Park; Mrs. Mattie Hamilton, 46, of Warren, and Edward Jorgensen, 48, of Lincoln Park.

Harry Sparks, chief of the sheriff's rackets squad said about $1,000 in cash, numerous betting slips, two short wave radios and other equipment was seized.

Weather Mixes Snow And Rain

By The Associated Press

Wet and cloudy weather covered wide areas of the nation today, with rain in many areas in the eastern half of the country and snow in north and western sections.

The wet belt extended from the western Gulf states through the upper Great Lakes region and into the northern Rockies and southward into Utah.

Heavy rain Sunday pelted areas in the Southeast and from the central Gulf states northward into the middle Mississippi Valley. Heaviest rains during the night were in parts of Mississippi and northern Alabama. More than three inches fell in Meridian, Miss., and nearly two inches in Birmingham, Ala., during a six-hour period.

Snow fell in parts of Montana, the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska. Strong northeasterly winds caused much blowing and drifting of snow. Cold air spread across most of the snow-covered areas.

Tornadoes struck near Ruston in northern Louisiana and Mineola in eastern Texas Sunday, causing property damage but no injuries.

the bedside. They had seen much history at MacArthur's side.

For example, that tragic night of March 11, 1942, with Japanese artillery and planes pounding Corregidor to a pulp. By presidential order, MacArthur left the Philippines, going in the misty darkness aboard a wooden PT-boat and taking with him his wife and son, then 4. He vowed "I shall return"—named Corregidor as a "Holy Grail" to be regained—and he kept his promise.

As the family left Walter Reed Hospital to begin the motor journey to New York Sunday night, Mrs. MacArthur leaned out to console a red-eyed, grieving nurse who had attended the general in his last hours.

The 12-car motorcade moved at a sedate 45-50 miles an hour up the broad turnpikes to New York. At tollgates, state troopers with illuminated torches waved it on, without payment of tolls.

Top Man At College

MacArthur during his career made soldierly history. At West Point, he averaged 98.14 in his studies—the highest ever scored—and he collected in war the Medal of Honor and five Distinguished Service Medals.

He was born in Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 26, 1880, the son of Lt. Gen. Arthur MacArthur, a Civil War veteran. In World War I, he created and led the crack Rainbow Division—the 42nd. He was gassed and wounded.

As war clouds gathered for the second global conflict, he was relieved from U.S. Army duty to become a field marshal of the Philippines and train those islanders for defense.

When the islands fell, he went to Australia and, as supreme Allied commander in the Southwest Pacific, pushed the great offensives, including the island-hopping campaigns, that finally helped bring Japan to her knees.

As Allied occupation commander in the beaten empire, he became a sort of super-emperor—operating partly behind the scenes to foster democracy and a peaceful spirit. One Japanese newspaper once remarked that many Japanese regarded him as "a living god."

But MacArthur did not, of course, so regard himself. To an American church group, which praised his policies in Japan. He remarked: "Though I am a Caesar, I rendered unto God that which was his."

Always, throughout his 52-year Army career, he pronounced himself a hater of war. With the growth of nuclear weapons, he said: "Science has clearly outmoded war as a feasible arbiter."

Trapped In Ice, Ships Disabled

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Three Canadian freighters, each with her propeller broken by ice, were trapped in 22 inches of ice in the lower St. Marys River Sunday.

The American Wilfred Sykes and the Canadian Midland Prince, meanwhile went through under their own power and the Coast Guard icebreaker Naugatuck brought four others upriver.

Disabled with broken propellers were the C.A. Bennett, Algonen and Donnacona.

The Naugatuck and the Charlevoix-based cutter Sundew have scheduled regular runs up and down the ice-burdened river to aid early freighters.

The Thunder Bay, with a hole cut in her hull by the ice, remained at the Soo for repairs.

Wings Complain Of Illegal Goal In 3-2 Setback

CHICAGO (AP)—No one will ever convince the Detroit Red Wings that a game-tying goal in their 3-2 Stanley Cup semifinal playoff loss to Chicago Sunday night was a bonafide score.

The goal, credited to Kenny Wharram, came at 5:25 of the final period, only 13 seconds after the Red Wings had taken a 2-1 lead on Andre Pronovost's goal and some 10 minutes before Stan Mikita clinched the victory with a 25-footer past goalie Roger Crozier.

The victory gave the Hawks a 3-2 lead in their best-of-seven series.

When Wharram scored the disputed goal, goal judge Grant Easson of Toronto did not signal the red light for several seconds. When the light did go on, referee Frank Udvari conferred with Easson.

Udvari then huddled with linesmen Ron Wicks and Matt Pavelich before again talking to Easson. Meanwhile, the crowd of 16,585 was getting impatient. Suddenly, Udvari signalled in favor of the Hawks and the Red Wings needed a few seconds before climbing all over Udvari.

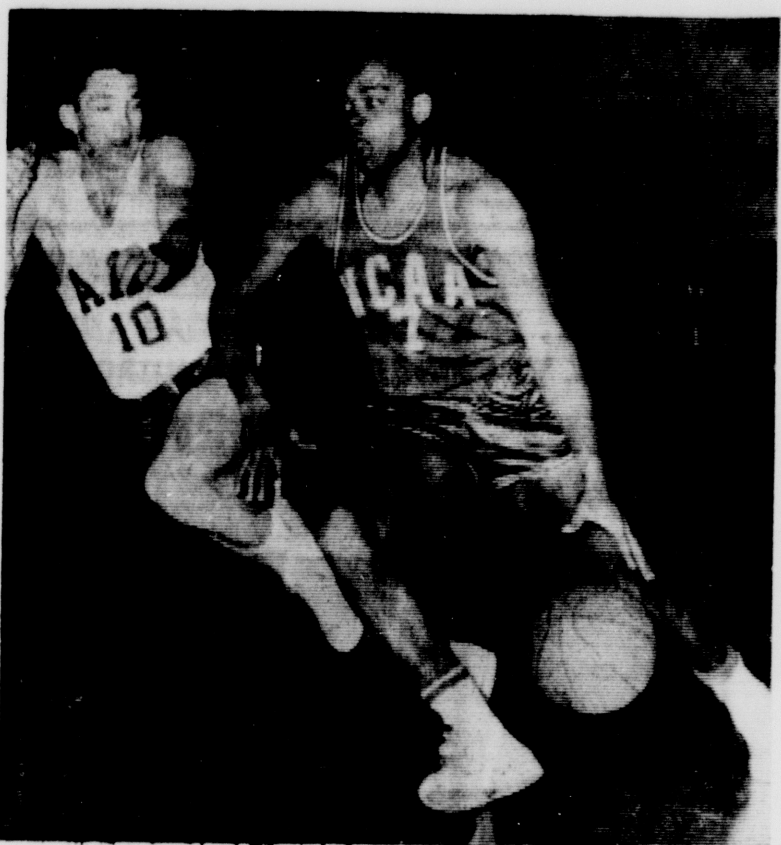

Crozier, filling in for injured Terry Sawchuk, insisted that "Wharram put it in after Udvari had blown the whistle."

Both the Hawks and Montreal now are in position to end their semifinal series Tuesday night. Montreal took a 3-2 lead over Toronto with a 4-2 triumph Saturday night.

The Hawks are at Detroit and Montreal at Toronto Tuesday night. If seven games are necessary they will be played in Chicago and in Montreal Thursday.

Smith, Bruton Standouts As Tigers Trip Phillies

By BERNIE KENNEDY
LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Sec- one baseman George Smith will stay with the Detroit Tigers for a while, and if he keeps hitting the way he has he may be around for a long time.

Smith singled in the 10th inning Sunday and romped home on Al Kaline's single to center to give the Tigers a 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and snapped a five-game losing streak.

The hit was Smith's second of the game, giving him seven in 14 trips to the plate this spring for a nifty .500 average.

"Sure, he'll stay with us a while," manager Charlie Dressen said. "If he would have played the way he has last year, we would not have had to look for a second baseman."

Billy Bruton had his best day of the exhibition season as he hit a home run leading off the fourth inning and added two singles to pace Detroit's 10-hit attack.

His single in the seventh inning tied the score after the Phillies had scored their two runs in the top of the inning.

The hitting of Smith and Bruton, however, did not overshadow another fine pitching performance by Frank Lary.

Lary was touched for four singles in the six innings he pitched and appeared to get stronger as the game progressed.

Lary has given up four earned runs while pitching more innings than any other member of the regular staff—25. That gives him a 1.44 earned run average which is even more impressive when one considers that the ERA for the entire staff was 4.60 going into the game.

The Tigers got only one hit off Jim Bunning, their former teammate now chucking for the Phillies, in the first three innings.

Bruton's homer came on the first pitch thrown by reliever Art Mahaffey.

Both of the Philadelphia runs came off Al Koch, who had the Phillies hitting the ball on the ground. But Don Wert's error with the bases loaded kept the youngster in trouble. Koch finally got out of it without allowing the ball to be hit out of the infield.

Dressen was pleased with the work of both Koch and Fred Gladding, the winning pitcher who hurled the last three innings. "I have never seen Gladding pitch better," the smiling Dressen exclaimed.

Kaline's game-winning hit came off Dallas Green, Philadelphia's fourth pitcher.

Outfielder Don Demeter was hit on the shin by a foul ball and retired from the game in the third inning. The injury was not serious, but Dressen has decided to give him the day off.

Duffy Will Build Three MSU Teams

EAST LANSING (AP)—Coach Duffy Daugherty will try to start building three separate football elevens at Michigan State today.

Daugherty is going back to the platoon system of the greatest winning Spartan era. His plans are made possible by freer substitution rules this year.

He plans to try to build separate offensive and defensive units and a third outfit able to go both ways.

"This may be our only salvation," said Daugherty as the Spartans prepared to open five weeks of spring drills.

There are a lot of holes to be plugged because of the losses through graduation to the team that had a 6-2-1 record last fall. State tied with Ohio State for second in the Big Ten after a 13-0 loss to Illinois in the final game that cost the Spartans the league title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

"The last time we had a strict platoon system was back in 1952," Daugherty recalled.

That was when Daugherty, now starting his 11th season as head coach, was an assistant under Biggie Munn while Munn was enjoying a 28-game winning streak.

With the exception of good strength at quarterback, the entire offensive backfield is gone. Among the missing are half-backs Sherman Lewis, Dewey Lincoln and Ron Rubick and fullbacks Roger Lopes and Joe Begany.

The No. 1 and 2 quarterbacks — Steve Juday and Dick Proebstle — are with the baseball team but will return in the fall. Third stringer Dave McCormick will be running the team this spring.

Juday, a sophomore last year and the best passer of the three, won the starting assignment.

Eskey Scores Meet Points

Escanaba athletes scored points in seven events in the fifth annual Northern Michigan University's prep invitational indoor meet at Marquette Saturday.

Bill Sarnowski placed second in the shot put with a toss of 46 feet 1 inch and Sam Oslund was third in the pole vault with a leap of 11 feet 2 inches.

Chuck Brookes was third and Pete Bertrand fourth in the 60 yard dash and Tom Bjorquist fifth in the 65 yard high hurdles. Ray Anderson tied for fourth in the high jump at 5 feet 5 inches.

Escanaba's eight lap relay team of Jim Boyle, Tom Bjorquist, Gary Vandeville and Wally Schultz won its section with ease but missed first place on times by about one second.

The Eskey four lap relay team of Chuck Brookes, Pete Bertrand, Dennis Reno and Jim Clairmont tied for fifth.

His two understudies shared the duties the last three games after he was injured.

The defensive backfield is in good shape with specialists Charlie Migyanker, Lou Bobich and Don Gapinga all returning.

With the exception of center, both the offensive and defensive positions in the line are riddled. Graduates include ends Dan Underwood, Mack Snorton, and Ed Latham, tackles Dave Herman and Charley Brown and guards Earl Lattimer and Mike Currie. A fine crew of centers will be back headed by Buddy Owens.

Daugherty figures it easier for the youngsters coming up to learn to go just one way, giving him an advantage in installing the platoon system.

Michigan State lost 14 lettermen through graduation and will have 22 returning but an even dozen of those lost were regulars.

Michigan Opens Football Drills

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Spring finally has come to the University of Michigan. Football practice started Saturday.

Football was to have started last Tuesday, but bad weather forced a delay. Saturday's chilly session brought 91 candidates out for drills.

Head coach Bump Elliott said he was pleased with the turnout. He said his chief problem this spring will be filling the interior line, decimated by the graduation of tackles Tom Keating and John Houtman and guards Joe O'Donnell and Dave Kurtz.

Among the spectators were two injured players—both expected to be top candidates for right half this fall. They were Dick Rindfus, injured in a campus basketball game, and Rick Sygar, who broke his right leg in a fall on a slippery street.

Olympic Team Pleases Coach

NEW YORK (AP)—There are many basketball coaches around who'd love a chance to pick at the leftovers now that the 1964 Olympic basketball squad had been selected.

But Hank Iba, who'll coach the U.S. entry at Tokyo in October, has no complaints with the 12-man squad and seven alternates chosen after three days of trials at St. John's University.

"I got what I wanted," said Iba, the Oklahoma State coach who has achieved 700 collegiate victories.

What he got was two All-Americans heading a power-packed team which includes three members of the Goodyear Wingfoots, National AAU champions.

Walt Hazzard of UCLA and Bill Bradley of Princeton were the All-Americans chosen. The selection committee picked Pete McCaffrey, Larry Brown and Dic Davies from the Wingfoots.

Rounding out the squad were Jim Barnes of Texas Western, Joe Caldwell of Arizona State, Mel Counts of Oregon State, Lucious Jackson of Pan American College, Jeff Mullins of Duke, Jerry Shipp of the Phillips 66ers and George Wilson of the amaco Saints.

Picked as alternates who'll stand by to replace the top 12, were Gail Goodrich of UCLA, Bunk Adams of the U.S. Army, Fred Hetzel of Davidson, Willie Murrell of Kansas State, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, Reggie Minton of the U.S. Air Force and Dave Stallworth of Wichita.

Tiger Brass To Make Cuts

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Detroit Tigers manager Charlie Dressen was to hold a conference with his coaches today to determine which 28 players the club would carry into its opening game a week from Tuesday.

The coaches have already made their choices, without letting any of the others know their selection. The votes are now in a safe in the hotel where the Tigers are staying.

"I have no idea who the coaches have picked," Dressen said Sunday. "I'll know when I get their papers out of the safe."

"Then we will set down and discuss each player's capabilities and contributions to the club. After that we will make our decision," he added.

Dressen says he will talk individually with each of the players cut by the team.

The Tigers will carry 28 men until 30 days after the season starts. The major league clubs then must trim their rosters to 25.

Carr Breaks World Record

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP)—Arizona State University's Henry Carr wanted to give his bride of six days a present. He did a world record - bettering performance for the curved 220-yard dash.

"After the way Adolph Plummer popped off," Carr said after topping his own world standard with a 20.2 timing Saturday night, "I decided she would like it if I beat him."

Carr's effort bettered his 20.3 world mark set on the same track March 23 last year, but it may not be accepted because there was no official wind gauge on the track.

The fleet 6-foot-3 junior and his wife, Glenda, were married in Detroit, Mich., March 29. While they were enroute to the A-State campus, Plummer announced he wanted a chance to beat him.

The world record holder in the 440-yard dash got it, but little else in their race during a dual track and field meet which the San Devils lost to Plummer's Southern California Striders 89-54.

Taylor Signs Packer Pact

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Fullback Jim Taylor signed his 7th National Football League contract with the Green Bay Packers today. Taylor, the Packers No. 2 draft choice in 1958 after he starred for Louisiana State, led the NFL in rushing in 1962, and was runner-up to Cleveland's Jimmy Brown last season.

Boros Is Winner In Golf Playoff

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—Julius Boros generated a hot 66 in a 45-degree temperature to catch Doug Sanders and then went on to beat him in a one-hole playoff in winning the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament Sunday. It was a sharp final competitive tuneup for the Masters Championship.

Last year when Jack Nicklaus won at Augusta, Boros finished third, two shots off the pace.

The 44-year-old U.S. Open champion said "I'm putting much better than last year, although I'm not playing as well otherwise as I did at Augusta. With my improved putting and this win behind me, maybe I can go down there with greater confidence."

Nicklaus, who defends the Masters title starting Thursday, began the final round here with a three-shot edge over his nearest rivals and was five in front of Boros.

But Nicklaus shot a double bogey 5 on the third hole and struggled the rest of the way. He finished two over par with 73 for 279 and fourth place.

Another Masters favorite, Arnold Palmer, ended in a tie for 13th place with 286. He shot par 71 for his final trip over the 7,000-yard Sedgefield Country Club course.

Boros accepted the $6,600 top prize money with the notation, "We have five children down in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and can use it." He won an additional $400 for the low score of the final round.

Tournament sponsors boosted the prize money an additional $10,000 Saturday night after three days of record crowds.

Boros, with rounds of 68-70-73-66 for a 277 total, was seven under par. Sanders shot 277 in 73-70-66-68. He won $3,800 in defense of the title he won last spring.

Cepeda Ripping Spring Hurlers For Best Start

By The Associated Press
Orlando Cepeda wasn't a hold-out this year, which may cause National League pitchers to wish they had been.

Cepeda, San Francisco's controversial slugger, is ripping his way through the best spring he has had in his seven-year career.

He smashed his sixth home run Sunday in the Giants' 5-2 exhibition baseball victory over Boston. He has a .419 batting average, three doubles and four triples to go along with the homers.

A major factor in Cepeda's exploding spring play very easily could be the lack of a contract battle with the Giants' front office. He signed for $53,000 and started training when everyone else did.

That was entirely different from last season when he held out for 24 days before signing for a token raise to an estimated $47,000.

He proceeded to hit .316, clout 34 homers and knock in 97 runs, a performance still well below his 1961 output when he batted .311, hit 46 homers and drove in 142 tallies.

The Giants lost to Los Angeles 10-7 last Wednesday, but Cepeda smashed a home run, a double and two singles. In a 5-3 triumph over Cleveland last Friday, he slugged two homers and a single, good for four runs batted in.

Elsewhere around the exhibition circuit, Bob Bailey hit two home runs and in Pagliaroni got a three-run blast, but Cincinnati stopped Pittsburgh 8-5 behind John Edwards' three doubles and a single.

Milwaukee swept past Washington 5-3 in 11 innings while Detroit nipped Philadelphia 3-2 in 10. St. Louis edged the New York Mets 2-1, the New York Yankees rallied for a 6-4 triumph against Houston and the Chicago Cubs came from behind for an 8-6 victory over Cleveland.

Minnesota defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-1, and Baltimore whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-1.

Boston Celtics Make It Three Straight Wins

By The Associated Press
Oscar Robertson has regained his scoring touch and Jerry Lucas is rebounding again but the magic is gone and so, it appears, are the Cincinnati Royals.

The Boston Celtics, shooting for a sixth straight National Basketball Association championship, trimmed the Royals 102-92 Sunday night and need one more victory for an unprecedented four-game sweep of the Eastern Division final playoff series.

In the Western Division finals, the St. Louis Hawks shrugged off a 46-point effort by San Francisco's Bill Chamberlain and edged the Warriors 113-109 for a 2-1 lead in their best-of-seven set.

Robertson broke out of a "slump" to score 34 points and Lucas, despite an ailing back, grabbed 24 rebounds. But the Royals shot only 33 per cent from the field and Boston broke the game open before halftime.

Bill Russell led a second-quarter rally that left Cincinnati 18 points behind at intermission. The Royals missed 40 of 51 shots in the first half. Russell finished with 22 points and 28 rebounds.

A goaltending call against Chamberlain, who scored San Francisco's last five points, and two free throws each by Bob Pettit and Richie Guerin in the closing minutes kept St. Louis ahead of the fast-closing Warriors.

Charlie Vaughn came off the St. Louis bench and contributed several key baskets.

Pettit topped a balanced attack with 26 points. Vaughn and Beatty had 22 each and Guerin added 19.

The fourth games in the two series will be played at Cincinnati Tuesday and St. Louis Wednesday.

Long Smashes His Own Mark

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dallas Long broke his own world shot put record Saturday, but he is still left with ambitions today—two of them.

The 260-pound giant heaved the 16-pound ball 65 feet, 11 1/2 inches—exactly one inch beyond his record set in 1962 — in the opening event of a track meet between Occidental College and the Pasadena Athletic Association.

Now he wants to win an Olympic gold medal in Tokyo this summer—he finished third in the 1960 Olympics — and he wants to hit 68 feet.

Both goals appear to be within easy reach of the former University of Southern California weightman.

European Champ Loses On Fouls

DORTMUND, Germany (AP) Sonny Liston, who lost his heavyweight title sitting on a stool, could take some lessons from Gustav (Bubi) Scholz, who won the European light heavyweight crown in much the same manner.

Scholz was declared the winner in Saturday night's bout when Giulio Rinaldi was disqualified for a series of fouls which left the German virtually helpless after the eighth round.

"When Scholz was unable to go on fighting," the referee said, "I had to disqualify Rinaldi."

The new champion, who had to be helped from the arena, was unhappy with his victory. "It's too bad it ended this way. I'm convinced I could have won the fight in a regular manner, too," Scholz said.

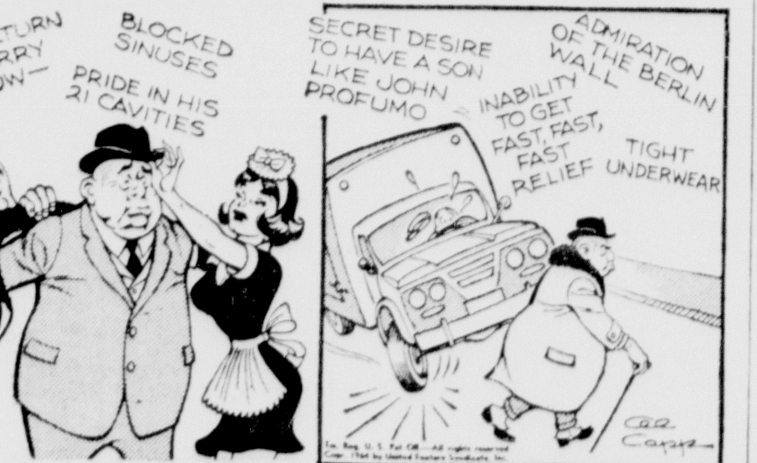

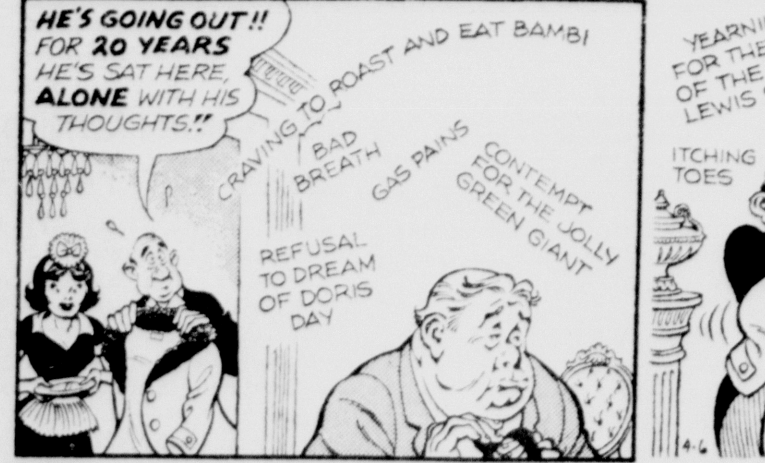

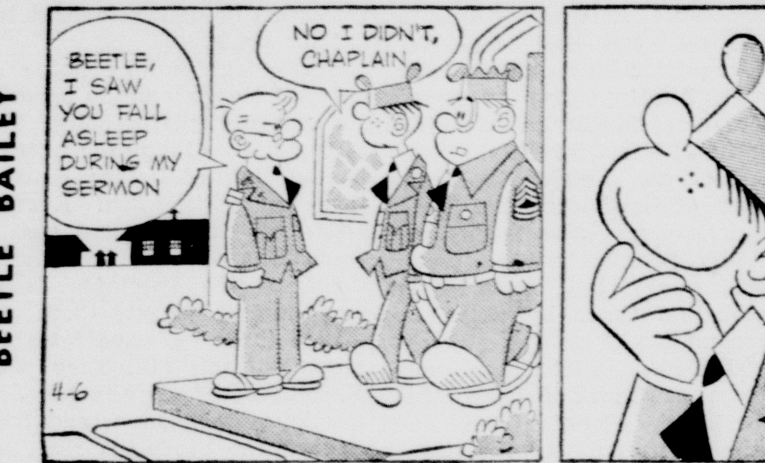

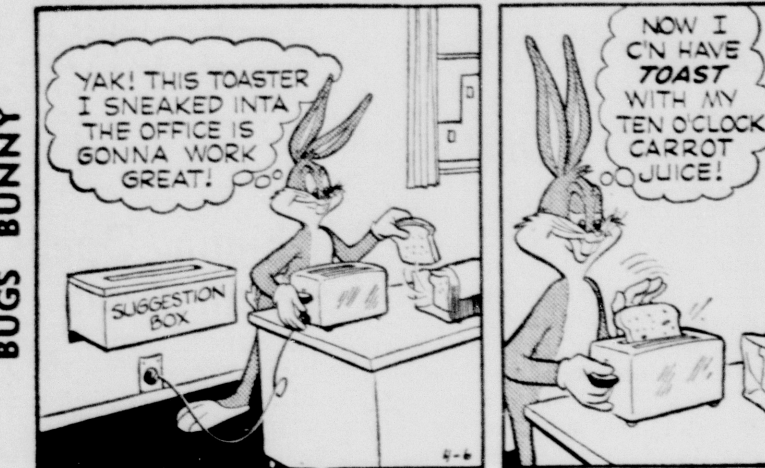

Scholz was hit first by a kidney punch and then by a knee in the eighth round and limped out to answer the bell for the ninth. That's when the referee stopped the fight.

In Green Bay Press-Gazette

A use has finally been found for the alewife, the brownish-green member of the herring family and a trash fish which has plagued the Great Lakes fishing industry for more than 70 years.

The millions of alewife which first invaded Lake Michigan in 1952, some 69 years after it left its native salt water habitat, will be caught and processed by a unique new industry to be located in Sturgeon Bay.

Peninsula Processing Co. will turn the fish into meal, oil and solubles. The new firm is expected to be in operation for the summer's fishing season.

The plant is expected to receive an industry damaged first when another salt water marauder, the lamprey, but eliminated the lake trout and whitefish, next when the smelt succumbed to alewife and when last fall's botulism scare chopped smoked chub sales to nearly zero.

Peninsula Processing is expected to create at least 15 jobs by the end of the year and afford employment to 108 fishermen. Eighteen of these will be with trawlers and 90 will use nets.

The trawlers are expected to work 12 hours a day for 215 days while the netmen put in 10 hours daily for 110 days. Combined they will be the equivalent of 71 persons employed fulltime.

By-Products Planned

Presently, a small amount of alewife is used for mink food and a fertilizer. When Peninsula Processing opens it will turn out great quantities of meal, a high protein supplement for swine and poultry feed, oil for paints and varnishes and solubles for a B-complex vitamin poultry feed additive, according to a government report.

The project is a combined effort of local fishermen, businessmen and government agencies. Only final approval from the U.S. Department of Commerce's Area Redevelopment Administration is needed. Greatest credit for the project goes to two Two Rivers fishermen, according to a Small Business Administration official who guided the endeavor from its conception.

Bill Kunesh and Pete Le Clair, owners of Susie Q Fish Co., Two Rivers, initiated the project, says John W. Jones, a technical expert with the Chicago office of the SBA. It was Jones, assisted locally by George Farah, chairman of the state SBA advisory committee, who guided the feasibility study and organized the corporation.

Jones, who comes to Green Bay regularly as part of the SBA circuit rider program to aid Northeastern Wisconsin businessmen on financial or technical matters, collected data on alewife, and compiled a report including market analyses, sales potential, engineering requirements and plant layout.

He also was the liaison man between the local businessmen and the Area Redevelopment Administration's area director Hanford Olson, Superior.

$200,000 Project

ARA will finance 65 per cent of the project's total cost of $200,000. The SBA, unable to underwrite the plan because of agency rules requiring collateral, experience, and established plant, available markets and technical know-how, will grant a working capital loan.

The plant will be located in the former Evangeline Milk Co. facilities in Sturgeon Bay.

The officers are George J.

Baudhuin, Sturgeon Bay, president; Kunesh, vice-president; Atty. Robert L. Bittner, Green Bay, secretary; and E. F. Bushman, president of the Ahnapee & Western Railroad, treasurer. Kunesh and Le Clair originally had planned for the plant to be in the Two Rivers area. But, it was later determined that this location would eliminate, because of transportation costs, the use of fish caught in Green Bay from Sturgeon Bay north and by fishermen operating out of the west shore of the bay, including Upper Michigan.

Production, Income Estimated

The SBA feasibility study estimates the fishermen should be able to produce 21,360,000 pounds of alewife during the first year's operation. At between $15 and $20 a ton for the fish, the fishermen should collect between $150,000 and $200,000.

After the fish are caught and transported to the plant they will be put in huge presses where the oil will be extracted. Further pressing will squeeze out the remaining fluids, primarily water containing nutrients. The mashed fish solids will then be cooked, dried and ground into meal.

The "second squeezings" fluid will be placed into equipment similar to a cream separator where more oil will be extracted. The remaining liquid (solubles) will be the feed additive.

The SBA study claims the products will be purchased by users through a broker.

In addition to the creation of a revenue producing company in Door County the project puts to work countless idle fishermen producing products heretofore imported to a great extent from foreign lands. The alewife plant also will help rid the lakes, and particularly Green Bay, of one of their most serious problems.

Killed Off Smelt

The alewife has been largely responsible for the demise of smelt. They have clogged the Great Lakes and contributing rivers and streams with unsightly and smelly refuse and use up valuable oxygen and food needed by game and commercial fish.

The alewife, called branch, river or spring herring in salt water areas and a distant relative of the shad, invaded the Finger Lakes of New York state in the 1860s. It was first reported in Lake Ontario in 1883, in Lake Erie in 1931, in Huron in 1935, Michigan in 1952 and Superior in 1954.

The fish grows to a maximum length of eight and a half inches in fresh water and may weigh up to 10 ounces. It is a prolific breeder. Each female can produce up to 12,000 eggs per season.

Alewife compete with herring and other species for food and rarely eat other fish. Their rapid build-up in recent years is attributed to the decline of the lake trout and whitefish because of lamprey, according to the Wisconsin Conservation Dept.

The small, bony, greasy body of the alewife detracts from its market value. Some salt water catches, which are larger and generally more saleable, have been smoked, but in the Great Lakes they have been used almost exclusively for animal food.

Abundant In Bay

Recent trawl fishing explorations showed that alewife were exceptionally abundant in Green Bay with catches coming at almost all depths. The explorations also showed the bay to contain generous amounts of obstruction-free trawling grounds, some of the best spawning conditions in the Great Lakes and an abundance of feeding areas.

In addition to the obvious economic benefits to Door County and the fishermen in Northeastern Wisconsin and Upper Michigan reducing or at least controlling the nuisance fish will have statewide results, according to government officials.

There could result an increase in the number of game fish and prime commercial varieties inhabiting Wisconsin's lakes and streams and the Great Lakes. U. S. Fish and Wildlife Dept. experts say the added oxygen and decrease in competition for food will aid the valuable species.

Communities, counties and the state will also need less funds for the removal of the millions of dead alewife which litter the state's attractive river banks and lake beaches.
